

Benches & Garden Seats

Our benches which have wood seats use our standard specified wood which is Ipe (Tabebuia). They are an even brown color when freshly milled and weather to a very nice silvery grey color over time. They are naturally antifungal, very dense and very hard. Vertical Grain Douglas Fir is available on special order. Treatment of the fir by painting or wood preservative is suggested.

1939 NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR

NO. 6737 NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR BENCH.

Available in 4', 5', 6' & 8' lengths.

This design was a refinement of an early 20th century bench. Robert Moses and Kenneth Lynch collaborated on the redesign in 1934 and it was then used extensively at the 1939 World's Fair in New York. Unbreakable ductile iron legs, wood slat seat. Can be bolted down. This extremely comfortable bench is in general use in New York's City Parks as well as on Pier 7 in San Francisco and many other public and private parks and gardens.

NO. 6737A WORLD'S FAIR BENCH WITH ORNAMENTATION

Available in 4', 5', 6' & 8' lengths.
An adaptation of the World's Fair Bench with decorative ornament applied within the arms and legs. These ornaments change the character of this sturdy old bench to a romantic 20th century design. Unbreakable ductile iron legs, wood slat seat. Can be bolted down.

Note: Arm inserts are available for the original manufacture or refit of benches.

NO. 6734 WORLD'S FAIR PICNIC TABLE.

Modeled after the famous 1939 New York World's Fair Bench. This piece is shown with No. 6738 backless bench. Because this combination did not work well, we are now suggesting that No. 6738 (see pg.416) be used instead. At some point a flat top version of the 6736 may be introduced. 3'w X 7'l x 30"h.

NO. 6739 HOOF BENCH

Available in 4', 5', 6', and 8' lengths.

First introduced in New York City in the mid to late 1800's. This bench has cast iron armrests and feet and uses 3/4" diameter steel bars as legs. There is a unique cast "Hub" joining the parts of the legs together and providing a place for the tie rods to anchor. As shown above, the bench is anchored by a rod that is located in the center of the foot. It fits into a 1 1/4" hole drilled into the pavement below the bench and is secured in place with non-shrink grout. There is an alternate fastening available, so that the bench can be simply bolted down.

NO. 6735 CENTRAL PARK SETTEE

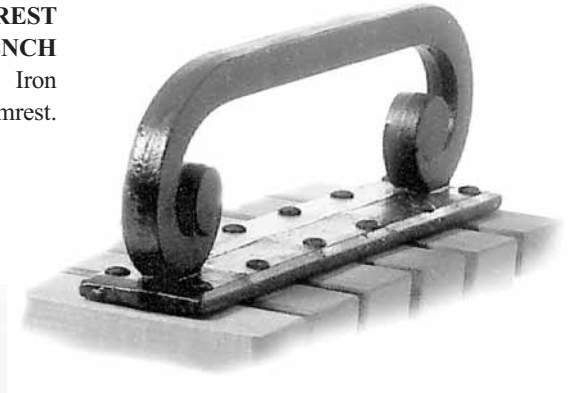

Available in 4', 5', 6', and 8' lengths.

This bench was originally introduced into New York's Central Park in 1858 when the park was first opened. They came into disuse toward the end of the 19th Century and were re-introduced in 1994. Manufactured with unbreakable ductile iron legs, wood slat seats. Can be bolted down. Wood painted Central Park Green or can be left unpainted.

WROUGHT IRON BENCHES

NO. 3359 ROUND THE TREE BENCH

Wrought iron round-the-planter bench with what appears to be individual seats. The planter is 30" x 30" square x 20" high and is arranged to be permanently installed. The planter itself supports the back of the bench. The overall diameter is 62". It is made entirely of unbreakable wrought iron. It is finished in either Central Park green, black or white.

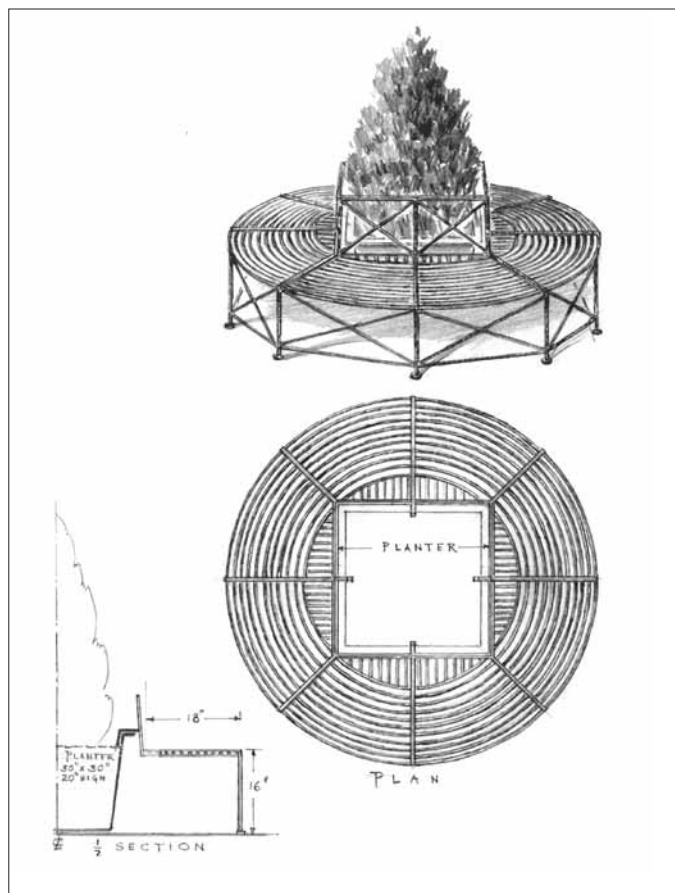

NO. 3360 ROUND THE TREE BENCH

Circular round-the-planter bench is 62" in diameter. The planter is installed permanently in the center of the bench and the back of the bench rests on the corners of the planter. The overall diameter is 62" and it is made completely of wrought iron. It is finished in either Central Park green, black or white.

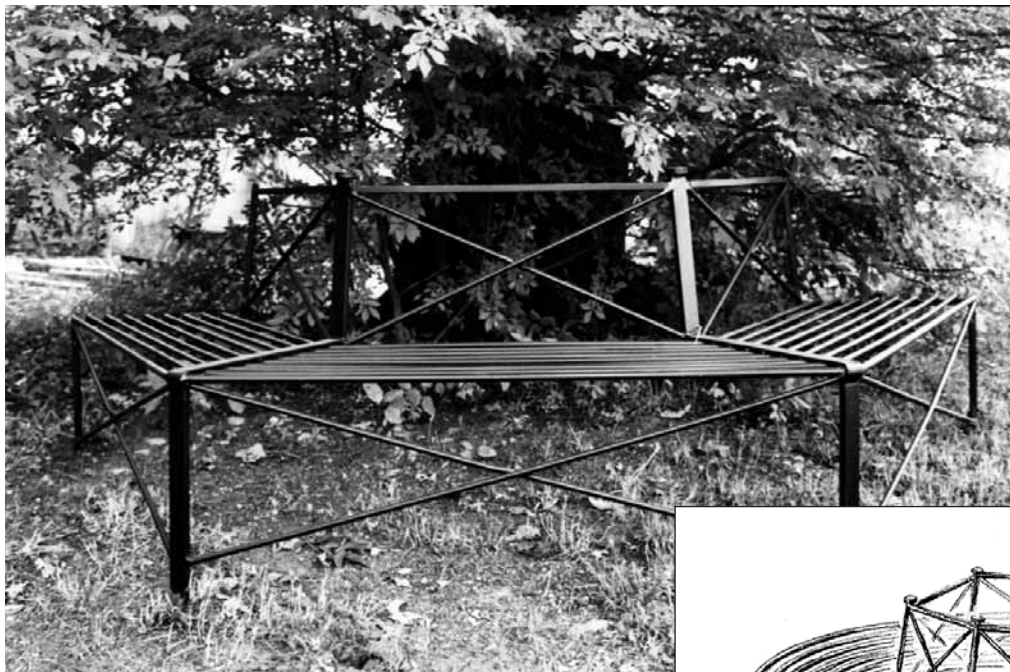

NO. 3361 ROUND THE TREE BENCH

Square round-the-planter bench with a planter perfectly installed in the center. The planter acts as the back support. Furnished in either Central Park green, black or white. It is 5' - 2" square.

NO. 3362 ROUND THE TREE BENCH

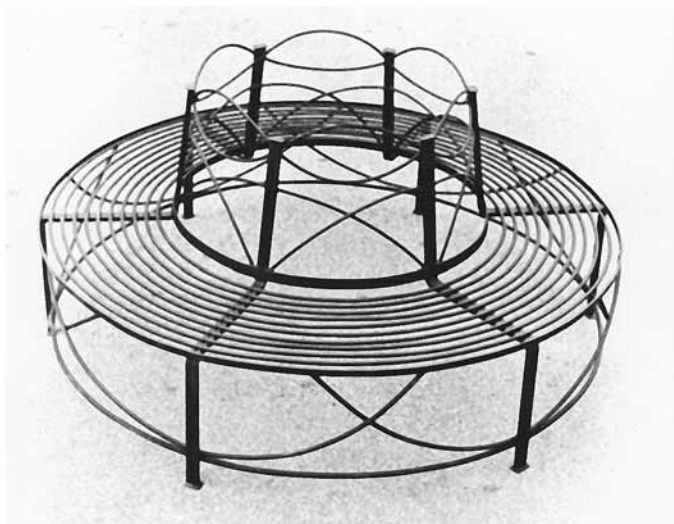

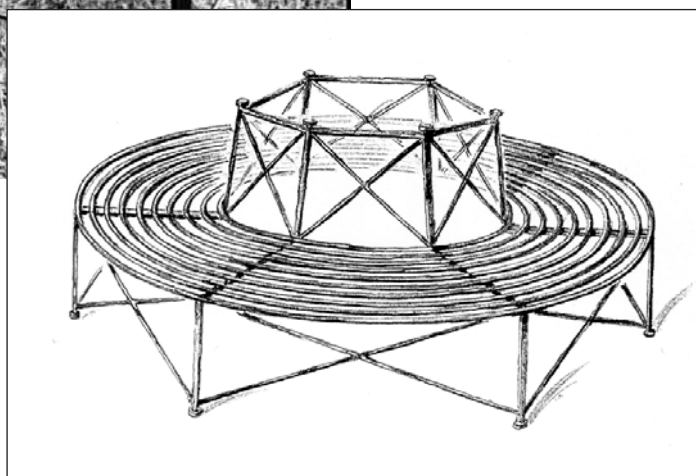

Wrought iron round-the-planter bench furnished in either Central Park green, black or white. The planter acts as a support for the bench. The under-rail can be redesigned for the convenience of cleaning. The overall diameter is 5' to 6' or as necessary for the size of the tree.

NO. 3233 ROUND THE TREE BENCH

Diameter overall 5'.

Wrought iron bench made in sections to go around trees. This classic design of the back and leg stretchers are much desired.

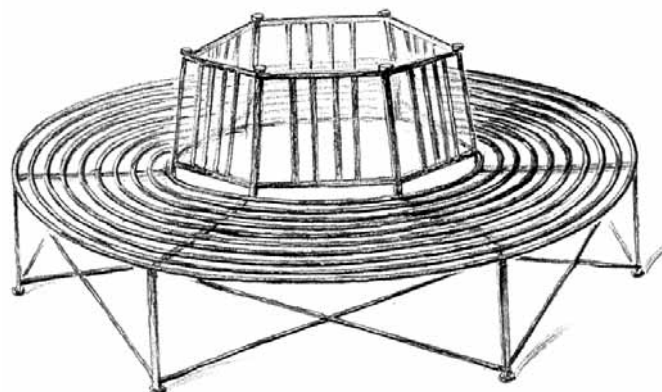

NO. 2725 ROUND THE TREE BENCH

Furnished in all diameters up to and including 12'.

Wrought iron bench to go around a tree. The seat part is 17" front to back. The seat and back are made of round iron. Generally, the opening for the tree is not less than 2', so a minimum bench would be 5' in diameter.

NOTE: All wrought iron benches are custom made. Therefore, the specifics of lengths radius, etc., can be modified or changed to fit the particulars of the job.

NO 3261 ROUND THE TREE BENCH

Diameters up to 12'.

Wrought iron bench of classic design. It is made of round iron. Note that this design is made in segments to fit together. This is the least expensive of "round-the-tree benches of large dimensions. It is 5' diameter overall and, of course, can be made larger.
